Ladies' Vic Kid Shoes,	$1.65 to $3.50
Shoes for Boys and Girls,	$1.00 to $2.50

A FALL IN CANNED GOODS.

Especially as to prices—is certain to please you. With the incoming tide of fresh vegetables and fruits, we must get rid of our canned stock—fine as it is—and our reduced prices will make them move in a hurry. Mark you: they're just as good and sweet as the day they were "put up," but out they must go, to your great benefit. Hurry up if you want any.

Oakley Clifford wishes to extend his sincere thanks to his many friends for their sympathy and many acts of kindness, at the time of the death of his mother, Margaret Clifford.

George P. Learnard, of the firm of Learnard & Lindemann, the South Second street piano dealers, returned this morning from a successful piano selling trip to southern towns in the territory.

Mrs. A. A. Henry authorizes The Citizen to say that she will be at home to her many lady friends on and after this date. Mr. and Mrs. Henry now occupy residence No. 909 South Broadway.

Albert Faber, the Railroad avenue carpet merchant, who is just recovering from a severe attack of rheumatism, will leave tonight for the Faywood hot springs where he will spend several weeks taking the baths.

Mrs. Max Schuster, of 502 West Copper avenue, has gone to Philadelphia, where she will meet her daughter, Miss Irma Schuster, who has just returned from an extended stay abroad. Both will return to Albuquerque in a few weeks.

Edward Grunfeld, representing R. B. Bloom & Co., wholesale clothing merchants of New York, is spending the day in Belen. Mr. Grunfeld will return tonight and leave for an extended goods selling expedition on the Pacific coast.

R. H. Sargent, of Washington, D. C., an engineer in the government forestry service, is in the city for a few days. Mr. Sargent is making arrangements for the survey of the new Jemez reserve, recently created by the Interior department.

William Harrell, a contractor on the Santa Fe coast lines, left the city last night for the grand canyon, in Arizona, accompanied by three plasterers and six stone masons, who are engaged to work on the new forty room addition to the El Tovar hotel.

A gentleman named Thomas has been employed to succeed W. B. Moore as house man and watchman at the Elks opera house building. Mr. Thomas hails from Michigan. Vincent Damiano has been employed as stage manager at the Elks opera house.

Col. Ralph E. Twitchell, assistant attorney of the Santa Fe in New Mexico, who is down from Las Vegas on business in connection with the Santa Fe's rebate case pending in the second district court, said this morning that the caring for the indigent sick coming to New Mexico from the eastern states was getting to be a big proposition. "And it has only begun," continued the colonel. "There will be more than 10,000 consumptives within New Mexico within the next few years and every one of them voting the democratic ticket." The colonel is a republican and quite dogmatic in all of his opinions.

Mrs. L. G. Rosenfeld, of 717 North Fourth street, today received an express package from Detroit, Mich. The package contained a wedding cake and the announcement of the marriage of her brother, Mr. S. Sallam, to Miss B. Yaltonstein, a prominent young lady of Detroit, which occurred there recently.

A. Van Pelt, a well known mason contractor and builder, of this city, will go to Santa Fe tomorrow morning. He secured the contract for the rubble stone basement of the N. B. Laughlin building, for which John Laughlin, of this city, is the general contractor. Mr. Van Pelt has three cement block residences to be erected in this city.

P. M. Jones, locating engineer for the Santa Fe, passed through the city this morning on train No. 2 en route to Chicago, where he is called presumably for the purpose of reporting on surveys he has recently made for changes contemplated on the coast lines. These surveys extend all along the line from Albuquerque to San Diego, Cal.

Rev. J. W. Barron, pastor of the Congregational church, on Saturday evening officiated at the wedding of Miss Belle Richards and Clarence Elliott, two well known young people of this city. Only a few close friends of the contracting parties were present. The newly married couple will go to housekeeping at once at 524 South First street.

Friends in this city have received the sad intelligence of the death of Mrs. N. F. Irish, at Pineville, Mo. The deceased resided in this city some years ago, at the time when Mr. Irish was connected in a clerical capacity with the Albuquerque National bank. Mrs. Irish was a most excellent lady, and many here and elsewhere will mourn her death.

An annual memorial service for the dead will be held tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock, at the Santa Barbara cemetery. Rev. C. Capilupi, S. J., will be the celebrant. The musical program will be in charge of the church choir under the able direction of Mrs. T. J. Shindick. Father Mandalar, S. J., will preach the sermon. Wm. Trimble will operate a bus from his stables to the cemetery.

Roy McDonald, cashier of the State National bank, left last Saturday night for Pittsburg, Kansas, where on tomorrow he will lead to the altar in marriage Miss Mabel Fitch. After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. McDonald will take a short honeymoon trip, and then return to this city. They will occupy a pretty home in the Fourth ward, which as just been completed and nicely furnished by the happy groom.

Nothing has been heard of Leo Baca, the fourteen year old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Baca, whose mysterious disappearance was told in the Citizen on Saturday evening. The police of surrounding towns have been notified to look out for him and it is believed his whereabouts will be learned in the course of a few days. It is not thought that he has met with any harm, but simply tired of home and wanted to see a little of the world.

In spite of the bad weather a large audience assembled at the Congregational church last night to hear Prof. Strong speak on the question, "Shall We Ever Compromise With Sin?" Local and national affairs were treated in a practical and interesting manner to the profit of a large number of men who were present. At the morning service thirteen new members were received into fellowship. Others will be received next Sunday morning.
